SUPPORTING DOCUMENT FOR 6.3.1

The Institution Has Effective Welfare Measures For Teaching And Non- Teaching Staff

The document provides the list of existing welfare measures for teaching and non-teaching staff.

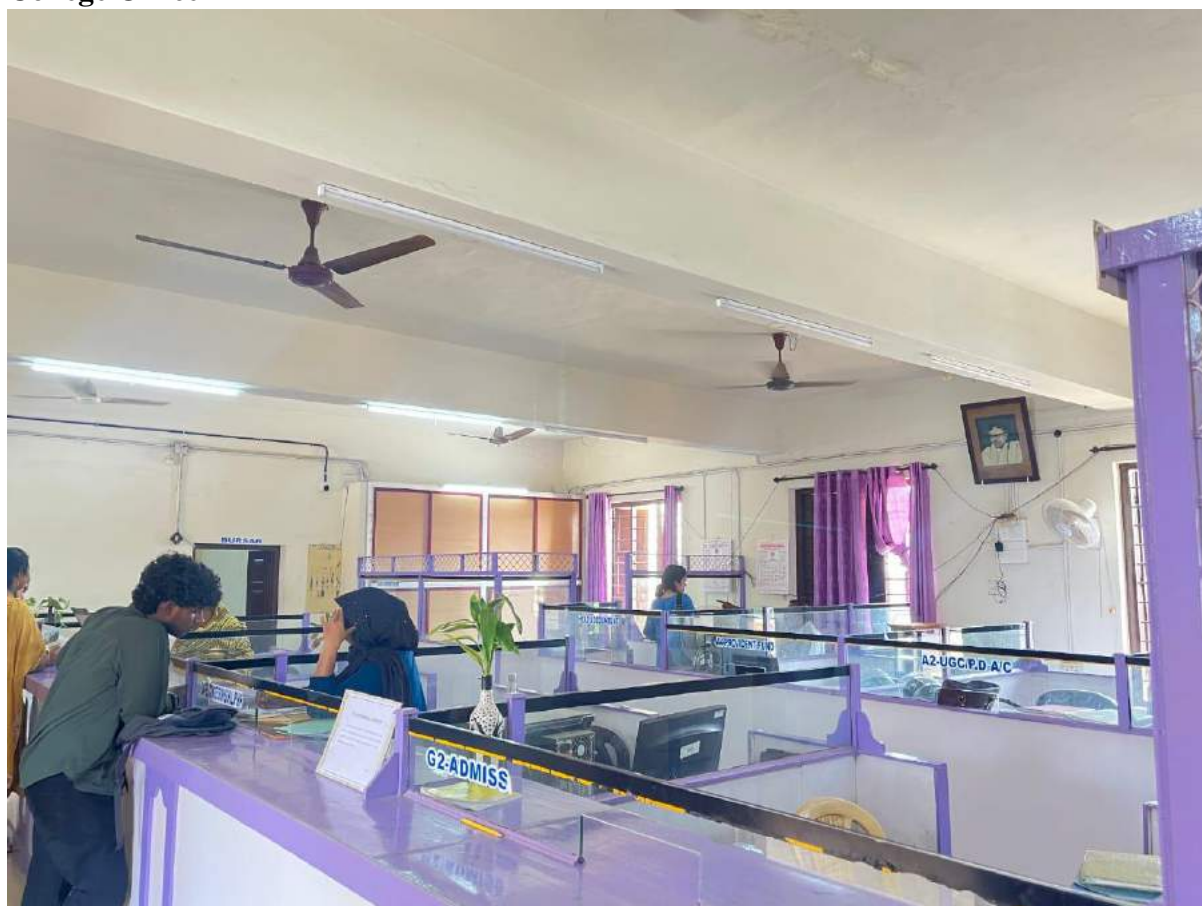

Welfare measures are something that is available to the workers of an institution in addition to regular wages and other economic benefits. Milad-E-Sherief Memorial College has effective welfare measures for the teaching staffs which are provided annually and this will make sure the financial and health securities for its teachers. In our College, teachers welfare is given foremost importance. Thus our College offers society loans for the teachers. For the period of 2020-2021, seven teaching staffs were given these loans with a total amount of twelve lakh fifty thousand rupees which are of great help for the teachers in the college. Our College ensures the wellness of its teachers and enable them to optimize their potential which leads to the selfless contribution towards the growth of the College. We believe that these measures help us attract and retain the best faculty member possible. We hope that NAAC will find them to be of value and consider them in the NAAC Assessment of the College.

Infrastructural facilities like clean, spacious, well-furnished and electrified Staff rooms, Classrooms, Administrative Office, Washrooms, and Recreational spaces have been provided to maintain the physical welfare of the employees. Prayer and Meditation Room, Yoga classes and counselling services, and motivational and interactive sessions have been instituted to ensure stress-free and productive mental framework in the Faculty as well as the Non-Teaching Staff. The facilities in the Gymnasium of the college are offered to the teaching and non-teaching staff too. M.S.M. College maintains a male Staff Cricket Team which was formed in 2019 with a host of benign motives such as providing the teachers and the ministerial staff with an opportunity to display their cricketing skills. Teachers are encouraged and given complete freedom to fulfil their academic aspirations by way of FDPs, training sessions organized by specialized agencies, Orientation and Refresher courses, Doctoral and Post-Doctoral Research and applying for Research Supervisor ship. Financial welfare of the Faculty and the Non-Teaching Staff such as Employees Provident Fund, General Insurance Scheme (GIS) and State Life Insurance (SLI) are also ensured.
